Lisa is to look into this and see why there is a balance. We will still owe this years cleaning of uniforms as well. Les Simms Bill for Colorguard fees was approved for $190 and paid The Report was read and approved by 1st:Cindy Covey 2nd Phil Poe

Old Business-Phil Poe- Vice President

By-laws were brought up again and discussed by Phil Poe. He suggested we table the by-laws to another date until further review can be done. The by laws can be amended in the future rather than being totally changed.

Ads to be sold in the Programs for EHS Band Concerts was brought up by Cindy Covey to get sponsors to put their names/businesses in this program and have them pay a certain price for their ads, ex: business cards, $\frac{3}{4}$ page, $\frac{1}{2}$ page, full page. This was tabled till another date.

New Business

Before the money of alumni/graduates of the past student accounts $2368 can be disbursed,a copy of this meetings minutes will be needed to officially open this account for the money to be transferred into general fund. The current officers will have to sign a signature card, once the new business account has been established, the money can be moved to general fund. The account now is a personal account with past officers names on it. Lisa will take care of this at the bank with the minutes of the meeting.

Approved by 1st:Phil Poe 2nd: Mr. Bowman

Fundraising

Zap-a-snack representative will be at Eastern on April 6th to go over the fundraiser during the day with students and at 7:00 for parents. This will help pay for band fees and a trip to Florida

Car wash was successful! We made $259 and split that money into the student accounts that worked at the car wash that day. David Faircloth was one of our people who donated $50! Cindy Covey is to send a Thank you note to him.

Cindy Covey organized an EHS fund raiser for us at Lazer X on the second Tuesday of May from 6-9p.m. for all Lazer Tag games played at $5 the EHS band will get back $2 toward the fundraiser. This has to be approved by Mr. Ebert first and no response has been received as of yet, so therefore this fundraiser is pending.

Lisa Henson is to look into getting us signed up at Food Lion and other stores such as Target, Home Depot. A portion of the proceeds that is bought at these stores will be put back in toward our organization. She will advise on what she finds out.

Lisa did get us signed up with Food Lion for the MVP cards to be registered online at their website. You can go online and register your MVP card# and a portion of your purchases will feed back to the EHS band program. So Sign up today and support the EHS Band program!*

There is to be a Colorguard Fundraiser Yardsale at the Teresa Claiborn's home @ 302 Pickett Lane, Mebane(near South Mebane Elementary) May 6th- 7:30a.m.-12:00p.m. If you have any treasures to sell, drop them off before May 4th. All proceeds will go towards the purchase of flags for the Fall Marching Band Show.
